Notes for Contributors

Submission Notes

1. Manuscripts submitted for publication in the International Journal of China Studies should focus on contemporary China and her relations with other countries and regions, in the context of regional and global development, and more specifically, issues related to the political, social and economic development, trade and commerce, foreign relations, regional security and science, medical and technological development of contemporary Mainland China, Taiwan, Hong Kong and Macau.

2. A manuscript submitted should be an original, unpublished work not under consideration for publication elsewhere.

3. All manuscripts under consideration for publication will be refereed via a double blind reviewing process.

4. The contents of a published article in the International Journal of China Studies reflect the view of the author or authors and not that of the editors of the journal or the Institute of China Studies, University of Malaya.

5. The editors of the journal do not accept responsibility for damage or loss of manuscripts submitted.

6. Manuscripts submitted should be written in English with Microsoft Word in Times New Roman font, size 12 and with 1.5 line spacing, and should not exceed forty pages (or in the case of a book review, not exceeding three pages) inclusive of tables, charts and diagrams, notes, list of references, and appendices. A short note on the author, including name, academic title and highest qualification (e.g., professor, senior lecturer, PhD, MSc, etc.), institutional affiliation, full postal address and institutional e-mail address, and telephone and facsimile numbers should be included. In the multi-author case, the corresponding author should be identified. An abstract of 100 to 250 words and a list of three to five keywords should also be given.

7. Copyrights of accepted manuscripts will be transferred to the International Journal of China Studies.

8. Authors may obtain permission to reproduce all materials of which the copyright is owned by others, including tables, charts, diagrams and maps, and extensive quoting should be avoided.

9. Book review submitted should focus on new or recent publications, and the book title, author, city/publisher, year of publication and total number of pages should be shown above the review.

10. Manuscripts and book reviews should be sent by e-mail to chinastudies@um.edu.my and jichinastudies@gmail.com, addressed to the Editorial Manager, International Journal of China Studies, Institute of China Studies, University of Malaya, 50603 Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

Stylesheet

1. Check carefully grammar and spelling before submitting the article.

2. Use British English, but alternate –ize spelling is permissible. Also note that a billion = 1,000,000,000 and a trillion = 1,000,000,000,000.

3. Make headings and subheadings identifiable, and try to avoid sub-subheadings.
